A. FIRST CLAIM: VIOLATION OF FLSA OVERTIME WAGE LAW

18. All other pertinent paragraphs set forth herein are incorporated here by reference as if fully set forth and re-alleged.
19. The plaintiff brings this First Claim for Relief pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
20. Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 206 and/or §207, the individual plaintiff was entitled to an overtime hourly wage of time and one-half her regular hourly wage for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week during the period of her employment in Nevada. The total number of overtime hours worked and uncompensated is estimated to be 11.5 hours. The defendants willfully failed to make said overtime payments.
21. Plaintiff seeks, on this First Claim for Relief, a judgment for unpaid overtime wages and additional liquidated damages of 100% of any unpaid overtime wages, such sums to be determined based upon an accounting of the hours worked by, and wages actually paid to the plaintiff and the plaintiff also seeks an award of attorney's fees, interest and costs as provided for by the FLSA. Plaintiff estimates the overtime wage damages at $679.75. This was the amount found due by the Nevada Labor Commissioner in a May 1, 2018 determination.
22. Liquidated damages available under the FLSA in this case are estimated at $679.75.
23. Defendants' violations of the FLSA were intentional and willful.
24. Plaintiff is entitled to recover costs and reasonable attorney fees pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b) for having to incur costs and fees associated with the exercise of his legal rights and remedies through this action.

Defendants failed and neglected to timely pay the Plaintiff her final wages in accordance with NRS 608.030 in that they failed to pay to plaintiff her final wages, including unpaid overtime wages, when due to the plaintiff within 3 days of her termination. Indeed her final pay to include unpaid overtime wages remains due and owing to this day.

31. Defendants are liable to Plaintiff for the statutory penalty provided in NRS 608.040. Plaintiff calculates this penalty at $7,500.00 ($250 x 30 days) based upon her regular rate of pay at the time of her termination.

32. Plaintiff has been forced to expend costs and incur fees to hire an attorney to pursue her rights under the law.
